The teleconference for the Executive Board was called by President Fletcher at 3:00 PM with roll call being taken by Recording Secretary Carr; All Board members were present.

Branch President Vacancy

The purpose of the teleconference was to fill the Branch President vacancy in Fayetteville, NC. The position became available after Brother Kenneth Shelton resigned from the position. In accordance with Local Union Bylaws, Article 7, Section 4, President Fletcher solicited NCSEBM Jackson for her recommendation to fill the vacancy; and the other Board members were solicited as well. Giving full consideration to Sister Jackson's recommendation and after some discussion the Board voted unanimously to fill the vacancy, for the remainder of the term, with Brother Maurice Wallace who is presently serving as the acting Branch President.

Being no further business the meeting adjourned at 3:10 PM.

Fraternally yours,
